

ProQuest ONE EDUCATION

Designed to support the unique needs of education students, researchers, and teachers.

Education is an ever-evolving field of study, and the recent pandemic has highlighted new ways of leveraging technology and raised awareness of the need to promote equity in the classroom. Education students and researchers need simpler paths to complete assignments and find information to support their research—whether investigating the viability of research topics, or identifying relevant literature to address their research questions.

ProQuest One Education brings together the content needed for study and research of education onto an intuitive and user-friendly interface created specifically for the discipline.

Authoritative Multi-Format Content

Meets the needs of education users of all levels by bringing together the content they need across multiple format types all in one place. The carefully chosen content includes scholarly journals, books, videos, reports, dissertations, news articles and more brought together into a trusted and high-quality collection for serious research and study.

Education-Specific User Interface

Features a user-friendly interface tailored to the discipline, guiding students and researchers through concepts with ease. Its intuitive structure and browse-friendly visuals swiftly connect users to curated content, streamlining research tasks and assignments.

about.proquest.com

To talk to the sales department, contact us at
1-800-779-0137 or sales@proquest.com.

ProQuest
Part of Clarivate

Authoritative Multi-Format Content

Different types of content are needed by different users depending on their assignment or research task. ProQuest One Education includes content to support multiple users, whether it's an undergraduate looking for an assignment topic, a PhD student putting together a literature review, or a professor looking for classroom resources.

Over 1,000 full text scholarly journals allow users to stay on top of the latest issues in the field with the current scholarship from the most important publications such as Harvard Educational Review, YC Young Children, and Language Teaching.

More than 5,500 videos of teaching demonstrations, lectures, documentaries, and footage of students and teachers in actual classrooms show the behavior, tone, facial expression, and body language that define effective teaching.

A collection of over 12,500 books for comprehensive, in-depth study including over 500 CHOICE and RCL award winners and titles from major publishers such as Bloomsbury, Routledge, and SUNY Press.

ProQuest ONE EDUCATION

Unique content from over 110,000 dissertations and theses helps users make new discoveries by tapping a vast amount of early scholarly content and cutting-edge thought.

Over 200,000 specially selected education-related articles from a variety of well-known newspapers such as New York Times, The Guardian, Globe and Mail, and USA Today give an accessible way to introduce students to topics and show theories and ideas in their broader context.

Users can explore education policies and their impact with 160,000 research reports from think tanks, governments, research organizations, and advocacy groups including the Brookings Institution, US Department of Education, and the World Bank.

The content from ERIC, the world's most widely used index to educational-related literature, offers over one million records of journal articles, research reports, curriculum and teaching guides, conference papers, and books.

Education-Specific User Experience

A logical and intuitive layout for studying the discipline

The unique interface has been specially created to meet the needs of those studying, researching, or teaching education. It is organized and structured to align with common areas of research and study, with content grouped together in a way that is intuitive and logical to those in the discipline. Combined with specialized indexing based on the internationally recognized ERIC thesaurus, it allows users to find more of the information they need more quickly and with more precision.

Homepage screenshot taken from beta version.
Final version may differ.

Education-Specific User Experience

Topic Pages provide one stop shops for ideas, concepts, and key study areas

Topic Pages bring together a curated selection of relevant articles, videos, books, dissertations and more, to provide students and researchers with a convenient, all-in-one perspective on a topic and help faculty create course materials for assignments and discussion. There are four main types of Topic Pages:

1. Subjects

Make it easier for users to identify topics for future projects, understand common concepts more deeply, and explore connected ideas. These pages are categorized into nine specializations:

- Administration & Leadership
- Curriculum & Instruction
- Diversity & Inclusion
- Education Technology
- Evaluation & Assessment
- Psychology & Counselling
- Research Concepts
- Student Life
- US Education Policy

2. Theories

Allow users to explore the key theories underpinning the discipline, including their formation, and how they apply to practical teaching methods. Examples include Constructivism, Cognitivism, and Sociocultural Theory.

3. Theorists

Explores the thinkers that have shaped the discipline and influenced teaching methods and education policy and laid the groundwork for future theoretical developments. Includes Jean Piaget, Lev Vygotsky, and John Dewey.

4. Teaching Methods

Staying up to date with the latest teaching methods makes it easier for students and researchers to understand the relationship between theory and real-world application. Examples include: Scaffolding, Direct Instruction, and Game Based Learning.

An example of a Topic Page in the Teaching Methods category.

about.proquest.com

To talk to the sales department, contact us at
1-800-779-0137 or sales@proquest.com.

ProQuest ONE

RELIGION & PHILOSOPHY

Explore the influence of religion and philosophy on history, society, and culture.

ProQuest One Religion & Philosophy equips researchers and students with tools to explore the influence of religion and philosophy on human history, society, and culture. It combines hundreds of full text journals, news sources, and dissertations with eleven unique primary source collections that collectively trace the evolution of religious thought across centuries and traditions.

12 unique archival collections including Twentieth Century Religious Thought Library volumes 1-5, Acta Sanctorum, Patrologia Latina, Luthers Werke, Religious Magazine Archive, Digital Library of the Catholic Reformation, and Digital Library of Classic Protestant Texts.

Over 2m pages of primary source materials including foundational texts, monographs, archival letters, religious magazines, critical analyses, treatises and tracts, sermons, and lectures.

Further content includes scholarly journals, magazines, streaming video and thousands of dissertations.

about.proquest.com

To talk to the sales department, contact us at
1-800-779-0137 or sales@proquest.com.

ProQuest®
Part of Clarivate

Authoritative Multi-Format Content

ProQuest One Religion & Philosophy offers an expertly curated collection of information across a variety of content formats to support the needs of students and researchers of religious studies, theology, and philosophy.

Primary Sources

A huge collection of over 2M pages from a wide variety of content types and subjects.

Scholarly Journals

440 scholarly journals in full text from publishers such as Springer Nature and Cambridge University Press.

Dissertations

Unique content from over 16k dissertations to provide new insights.

Video

Includes religious films and documentaries.

ProQuest
ONE
RELIGION & PHILOSOPHY

ProQuest One Religion & Philosophy includes the following Collections:

Religion Archive Collection

Brings together 12 expansive and unique primary source collections that collectively trace the evolution of religious thought, theological scholarship, and philosophical inquiry across centuries and traditions. It includes:

- Acta Sanctorum: Acta Sanctorum (or 'Deeds of the Saints') is a principal source for research into the societies and cultures of early Christian and medieval Europe providing information on the lives of the saints and every aspect of life from the beginning of the Christian era to the end of the sixteenth century.
- The Bible in English: 20 different versions of the English Bible, including 12 full Bibles, five New Testament texts, two versions of the Gospels only, and William Tyndale's translations of the Pentateuch, Jonah, and the New Testament.
- Digital Library of Classic Protestant Texts: A vast collection of seminal works from the Reformation and post-Reformation eras, enabling in-depth research into the religious and social upheavals of the 16th and 17th centuries.
- Digital Library of the Catholic Reformation: a treasury of theological writings, biblical commentaries, confessional documents, social and political works, sermons, letters, polemical treatises, and other key documents from this critical epoch in European history.
- Luthers Werke: This complete Weimar edition of Luther's writings is one of the largest editions ever by a single author comprising more than 117 volumes in quarto format. An indispensable historical-critical tool for theologians and historians, linguists and literary scholars.
- The Patrologia Latina: All 221 volumes of the first edition of Jacques-Paul Migne's Patrologia Latina (1844-1855 and 1862-1865), a huge collection of the writings of the Church Fathers and other ecclesiastical writers.
- Religious Magazine Archive: Religious magazines originally aimed at a popular readership are key primary sources through which to interpret myriad aspects of 20th-century religious history. Religious Magazine Archive provides access to the archival runs of 18 major religious consumer periodicals.
- Twentieth Century Religious Thought Library:
 - Vol I, Christianity: With 150,000 pages of scholarship, this resource provides unprecedented access to the diverse ideas that have shaped understandings of Christianity across history
 - Vol II, Islam: Thousands of pages of foundational texts and contextual monographs from the late 19th century to the 2010s
 - Vol III, Judaism: the most important works and primary sources that document the evolution of Judaism from the 1890s-2010s including many unpublished primary sources and difficult-to-find texts and authors.
 - Vol IV, Eastern Religions: presents the evolution of eastern religion through the seminal works of major religious thinkers in Buddhism, Hinduism, Taoism, and Jainism.
 - Vol V, Religion in Video: This unique collection of religious films and documentaries provides a deeper understanding of the social and political context surrounding practicing religion in the modern era.

Philosophy Research Collection

A full-text journal database specifically designed for researchers of all aspects of the interdisciplinary field of Philosophy. Content covers the period 1860 to the present and is updated on a regular basis with new issues and new journal titles. Researchers require access to modern and historical full text journal content and are, in greater numbers, consulting contemporary dissertations to conduct their studies.

Religion Collection

Provides a broad range of primarily full-text international periodicals including scholarly journals, content from religious publishers, nondenominational organizations, newspapers, trade journals, and magazines to support the study of both traditional and contemporary trends in religion.

It Includes 280 full text scholarly journals from providers such as Springer Nature, Cambridge University Press, and Johns Hopkins University Press and covers formal theological studies and commentary on topics of general interest from the perspectives of specific religions.

Includes the new ProQuest Research Assistant

Built in collaboration with librarians, students, and faculty, ProQuest Research Assistant harnesses academic AI to solve real problems and streamline workflows.

- Key takeaways of the document to quickly determine relevance
- Guidance on next steps like choosing a research topic and understanding key concepts in the document
- Helping users turn generic searches into structured Boolean queries, including synonyms and related terms
- AI features appear on many content types including scholarly journals, dissertations, and magazines.

about.proquest.com

To talk to the sales department, contact us at 1-800-779-0137 or sales@proquest.com.